

Washington Top Projects of 2003

1. Snohomish County Campus Redevelopment Initiative, Everett, Wash.

Construction cost: $105 million

General contractor/construction manager: M.A. Mortenson, Bellevue, Wash.

2. Sacred Heart Medical Center Expansion, Spokane, Wash.

Construction cost: $98 million

General contractor: Bouten Construction Co., Spokane, Wash.

3. Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center, Public Health Sciences Building, Seattle, Wash.

Construction cost: $88.5 million

General contractor: Turner Construction Co., Seattle, Wash.

4. Cedar River Water Treatment Plant, Renton, Wash.

Construction cost: $78.3 million

General contractor: CH2M Hill Constructors, Bellevue, Wash.; M.A. Mortenson, Bellevue, Wash. (structures), Skaar Construction, Auburn, Wash., (concrete clearwell tanks) and General Construction, Poulsbo, Wash., (intake raw water pump station)

5. Sea-Tac Airport Central Terminal Expansion, Sea-Tac, Wash.

Construction cost: $70.6 million

General contractor: J.E. Dunn Construction – NW, Portland, Ore.

6. Washington State Legislative Building Rehabilitation and Addition, Olympia, Wash.

Construction cost: $68.5 million

General contractor/construction manager: M.A. Mortenson, Bellevue, Wash.

7. King County Courthouse Seismic Retrofit, Seattle, Wash.

Construction cost: $60 million

General contractor: Baugh Skanska Inc., Seattle, Wash.

8. Greater Tacoma Convention and Trade Center, Tacoma, Wash.

Construction cost: $51.6 million

General contractor/construction manager: M.A. Mortenson, Bellevue, Wash.

9. Everett Regional Special Events Center, Everett, Wash.

Construction cost: $50 million

General contractor: PCL Construction Services, Bellevue, Wash.

10. MultiCare Medical Center L-Wing Expansion, Tacoma, Wash.

Construction cost: $43 million

General contractor: Baugh Skanska Inc.

Click here for Oregon's Top Projects